Celebrating the Life of Blessed Nicolas Barre

IJ Heritage – Living the Legacy of Fr Barre

Blessed Nicolas Barre was not just a French Minim monk of the mid-17th century who provided human and religious education for the young people of his time but he has a tremendous influence through the ages.

In Singapore, the eleven Convent of the Holy Infant Jesus Schools (CHIJ Schools), founded at different times by the Infant Jesus Sisters, deeply rooted in the charism and spirit imparted through the life and writings of Fr Barre, imbibe the same mission, values and motto but express their unique identity in different architectural designs and in the creative expressions of the school population.

The following pictures depict how each school expresses her reflections of the impact of our founder, Fr Barre.

Prayer of an IJ girl \(true blue\)

O God, like Blessed Nicolas Barre, may I also believe that you truly love me. Help me dwell in the sunshine of your great love, O Lord, so that whatever I may go through in my life, studies, work and relationships, at home, in school and in society, I may have complete trust in your love and providence. Help me to hold firm to your unconditional and excessive love for me and grant me your peace as I face the challenges on my journey as a citizen of the world. Teach me to be generous in using my gifts, talents, expertise and experience in serving others especially the disadvantaged, the last, the least and the lost, without counting the cost. Help me always to respect the dignity of each person I encounter and to work for the common good. Amen

Icon by Marc Laenen commissioned by the French Province for the Council of Institute in Malaysia, 2018.

Message of the icon: With one hand, he presses CHARITAS to his heart. With the other, he invites to contemplate the child of Bethlehem whose cave is joined to the hill of Golgotha. Jesus looks lovingly on Blessed Nicolas while his gaze is fixed on the Infinite.

This sculpture of Blessed Nicolas Barre with the child Jesus is found in the chapel of the IJ Motherhouse in Paris.

Prayer to Fr Barre

O God, who inspired Blessed Nicolas Barré with the desire to make Jesus-Christ known and loved, especially to the lowly and the little ones, grant that, following his example, and through his intercession, we may be faithful to the promptings of the Holy Spirit, attentive to the needs of others, and trust in your constant love for us. We ask this through Our Lord Jesus Christ.
